到2010年，Ring Road和Hospital Road和City Road的路口新建了两个Roundabouts。

In 2010, two new roundabouts were constructed at the crossings between the ring road and the hospital road and the city road.

另一个显著的变化是Bus Stop被拆除了，取而代之的是Hospital Road西边的新Bus Station，与Roundabouts相连。Another significant change was that bus stops were demolished. Instead a new bus station was developed to the west of the hospital road, which was linked to the roundabouts.

旧停车场成为职工专用停车场，而在医院东侧开发了一个新的、更大的公共停车场。

The old car park became exclusive for staff, while a new, larger public car park was developed on the eastern side of the hospital.

THE SAMPLE ANSWER

- The two pictures illustrate how road access to a city hospital changed between 2007 and 2010.
- Overall, although some facilities were removed, new transportation infrastructures were introduced and the parking area was increased.
- In 2007, there was a hospital situated in the north which was surrounded by a ring road. The ring road was connected to a city road in the south by a hospital road stretching from north to south. Three bus stops were lined on each side of the hospital road, whereas a car park available for both staff and the public was located on the eastern side of the hospital road.
- By 2010, two new roundabouts had been constructed at the crossings between the ring road and the hospital road and the city road. Another significant change was that bus stops were demolished and instead a new bus station rose up to the west of the hospital road, which was linked to the roundabouts. The old car park became exclusive for staff, while a new, larger public car park was developed on the eastern side of the hospital.
